What would you do if you had God-inspired dreams and goals but no opportunity to prepare yourself to fulfill them? You are called; but you feel stuck.

Carlitos has dreams and goals. And such high hopes for a better future. We first met Carlitos five years ago when his mother was dying of cancer. Together we prayed for a physical miracle, yet we've witnessed a spiritual miracle instead. The whole family has come to know Jesus and is serving in New Life Christian Church.

Fifteen-year-old Carlitos has so much potential. But he doesn't have the chance to go to public high school because he didn't receive an acceptance letter. Instead, Carlitos works with his uncle at a mechanic shop and lives with his grandparents in one of the poorest areas of Pachuca. There are reasonably priced private high schools in Pachuca where he could attend. How could we Insert Love Here for students like Carlitos who don't have the resources to finish their education and pursue their God-given dreams?

Lino spent years addicted to drugs and alcohol. That's until Lino surrendered his life to Christ. As he grew in his faith, Lino felt God calling him into ministry. So he attended discipleship training through Youth With A Mission in Mazatlan, Mexico. Lino is continuing his training by ministering to youth with addictions. His long-term vision is to establish a rehab center and ministry in his home community of La Raza in Pachuca. How could we Insert Love Here by training and empowering Lino to reach people from La Raza who are struggling with addictions?

Previous special gifts already helped New Life Christian Church to send out 7 youth for intensive training and preparation for ministry. Your generosity also allowed two of the church's elders to participate in a leadership conference in California. And 3 more young people are now ready for more formalized ministry training. Emmanuel, one of our worship leaders, has committed himself to 6 months of training, with plans to return to Mexico for his university studies and to continue his service in the church. Antonio will soon enter a 3-year Bible Institute in Argentina to prepare for full-time ministry. Monica is eager for her 6-month internship in Argentina. How could we Insert Love Here by helping train and mobilize these young people in ministry?

We are raising $15,000 to help more people from the church receive ministry training and be "sent out." For some, like Carlitos, their first step is completing high school.

Would you invest in the lives of these young people and in the eternal impact they will have? You can use the response card below or give online today: cmfi.org/sendthemout
